Subject: FW: Available mental health resource

Greetings!

After a very important conversation with a neighbor, who felt isolated and anxious, I thought it imperative to remind everyone of this important community resource. There are many people struggling with mental health challenges at this time. The Wellness and Support Center is Bergen County's urgent care center for mental health services. This is a walk in center but we are asking people to please call ahead, if possible. Help is available. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call me!
